rebuke. Now, a party that does that has a right to ask the condence and the approval of the people of mis country, because that party has said, hot only by its resolutions but by its acts, that the democratic banner should have no stain upon its folds. That party has said of its acts that the democratic banner should have no stain upon its folds. That party has said of its acts that the democratic banner should have no stain upon its folds. That party has said of its acts that the democratic banner of provide plunder rather than exercising it for the public good. And so, I trust, this party will say everywhere, while it may not, as a popical party, sit in judgment in convension upon criminals, to every man holding power by virtue of the saffrages of the democratic party. If you so act that we see that under your administration there has been corruption and plandering and maladministration, we will east you out from our party until you shall have purged yourself from sine ofteness, or until we shall have had an opportunity to punish you through the courts.

Fediow otitizens—Nothing could be more unjust, bothing could be more uniair, than to hold the democratic party responsible for local maladministration, for the corruption of the officials of a particular locality, until you find that the party, when gathered in convention, fails to demounce the fraud and to cut off from fellowship those who are guilty of it, and to pledge themselves to carry out their promises by action, to remedy so far as -possible by legislation the work by which such frauds and such maladministration was possible. Therefore it is that I am gratified with the temper of this Couvention—not passionate, not in anger, but calm and firm in the determined discharge of the day. They knew that the democracy of the great democracy for the great democratic party of the party, the firm, harmonitous and friendly meeting of that question, irreling the skirts of democracy for the think such a question to the scheme of the suspicion of continuous democra

Mr. Bandenburg, of Ulster, being called for, responded, referring to the continuous reports, for the past nine years, of corruptions and detaleations in the Internal Revenue, Indian, Paymaster and other departments of the national government; and the national government; and the national government; and the national government; and not come a matter of course. But when charges were made in New York of corruption the Syracuse Convention rise in terror and adopt a string of resolutions.

Mr. Dewirt, of Kings, was next called upon, and spoke at length. He claimed that the great and gigantic frauds were not wholly attributable to the Tammany organization, as had been said, and argued to show to the contrary. He then proceeded at length to speak of the services of the democratic party.

The Candidates for the Ticket-Tweed Berenuded by the Sanudley Legion-Balloting for the State Committee-The Young Men of the Democracy.

BOCHESTER, Oct. 4, 1871. The Shandley Legion, of New York, paraded to-migns through the streets marching eight abreast and headed by a band of music, after which they

All the delegations from the various Judicial districts were also balloting for members of the State Committee are likely to be appointed:—S. J. Tuden, of New York; Joseph Warren, of Erier, Delos De Woll, of Oswege; E. P. Ross, of Cayuga, and George Magee, of Schuyler.

There appears to be groat satisfaction at the action of both the Tammany delegation and the Convention. While the former claim they have defeated a determined effort to break their power as an organization the latter feel they have discharged their duty in purging their body of any taint which man likely to attach to it by affiliation with the former representatives. Nothing is said regarding the Reform or German delegations. The former, it is said, was, before the Committee on Contested Seats this, afternoon, but as the committee submitted their report to the Convention without mentioning the fact this evening, it is evident they decored to soide by DeWitt's resolution, adopted this afternoon, decigning that Tammany having withshawa, New York should stand unrepresented.

The Young Men's Democratic State Central Committee met at the Osborne House to-doy. General McQuade was Chalfman and J. Weisey Smith Secretary. An Executive Committee, consisting of G. J. Magee, W. H. Benjamin, W. Hitchman and Smith M. Weed was appointed to provide for the organization of young men's democratic clubs throughout the State.

Among the persons mentioned for Secretar, of State are Diedrich Wilcrs and Magnus Gross; for Compitroller, Lucas Rubinson and Asher P. Nichols; for Attorney General, M. R. Shamplain, A. P. Lanning, F. Kernan and Smith M. Weed; for State Treasury, D. J. Haistead, wheeler H. Bristol, Richd. F. Clark and Commissioner, G. W. Chapman; for State Prison Inspector, D. B. McNeil and Mr. Leiddington, of Syracuse.

voice of the press and the wishes of the people. They trembled for their fat sinecures and for the safety of the sums stolen from the pockets of the people. Yet their day had not come for repentance. As the old song says:—

Oh, plunderent whose desperate eyes Gladden and glost above the prize;
Accourge for this comes by and by, you'd hear a voice outside your door, A wading shadow evermore,
A wading the carry of the limpossible that any reasonable being should be expected to have any sentiment until he has taken his breakfast and digested the contents of the Herald. And on this understanding the Herald reporter acted. He gives his experiences as he found them, indicating time, place and circumstance.

NINE O'CLOCK A. M.—TWENTY-SECOND STREET AND REOADWAY.

In this neignborhood there is a well known drinking saloon kept by a rotund and joyous Rouliace, who dispenses to his willing enstomers coysters, beefsteaks, chops, scollons, raw and fried chans, and for anything that is called in the drinking line, from a pot of jolly good beer to a champagne cocktail. The haunt is well known for the gallery of caricatures of public men which crowd the walls of the saloon. Fy stairs is the headquarters of the Radical Committee, where meetings are held monthly, or as the political extgency might demand. These small fry politicians have the look of stage bandits, with waxed mustaches, fiery red ties and brazen countenances.

A squad of these fellows began to feel thirsty a little after nine o'clock and that salesce if the second.

To become of our rake if this deviltry is going to become of our rake if this deviltry is going to keep on, I'd like to know? It seems to me if Tammany is chucken that our little American salaries will go by the board. Don't you think so?

SECOND BRIGAND - Well, I must say that Tammany has managed very badly if they allow themselves to get floored now by a lot of countrymen and novices in politics. Why here you and I and Hill and Jim, although we are good republicans, to the backbone, we have been helping Tammany for the last three years might and main. We have done all we could be bother our own organization and now we will have considered on the country of the last three years might and main. We have done all we could be bother our own organization and now we will have considered the country of the last three years might and main the country of the last three years of the country of the last three years of the country of the country of the last three years of help in the last years of help in the last years of help in the last y see the State Central Committee is composed of twenty momeers: two from each of the eight judicial districts—Gan's sixteen; and four members at large—that's twenty in aff. New York county is one judicial district and is represented by Peter B. Sweeny and Charles G. Cornell in the State Central Committee. Well, Tilden has had his eyes hoodwinked and has gone to sleep, and Sweeny has stolen a march on him. Everything is arranged beforehand at the State Central Committee as to how the Convention is to be managed.

SECOND FINANCER (who has just bought another evening paper)—Will, I'll be hanged if Horatio Seymour hasn't allowed himself to be overthrown by some spouting young lawyer named Dewitt, from Brooklyn. Then there's another mancutre—Jim McQuade, of Hoffman's staff, is to be admitted, instead of that splendlid old lellow, Francis Kernah. Well, this is the worst of all the developments. How can a party stand that will tolerate such trickeries? First Pinancier—It can't stand and it won't stand. Let the O'Conor delegation come back and organize the people against the plunderers. I am a democrat; but I am tired of this informal political swindling. I had sooner see the State lost than have this go on any longer. Democrat or not, there must be an end of this thing some day, or, if not, we must have a Vigilance Committee or a Commune in New York. If I am a democrat I would just as soon be robood by a republican thef as by a democratic that. What is the maternal difference?

THERP FINANCIER—The great trouble, in my opinion, with the country democrats is that they think that they understand politics, when they are perfectly ignorant of the science. It is a science, and must be studied like the law of engineering. The Tammany Ring of theires have made it too studied have republican toous poblic arms, and they are, in addition, born politicians. You can take any short-haired rough, with a revolver in his trousors pocket, and he can do more in twenty-lour hours among the masses of the party, who are law yield by the nos ation of the Republican Convention's Resolves-War Against Tammany and "Let Un flave Pence" for Grant.

The republicans who believe in Grant and swear by Murphy assembled in considerable force in Apollo-Hali last night. An al freeco meeting of the Executive Committee was held previous to the meeting, at which the leading lights in the faction shone with their customary brilliancy. Charley Spencer was there, gorgeous and genial; Colonel Duganne was conspicuous and John J. Townsend presided with his usual grace. The ess was all cut and dried-in fact, it was very dry-and was soon disposed of. Being called to order the meeting moved up toward the platform and listened apathetically to the calling of the roll and the reading of the minutes. This being con-cluded a vigorous-looking delegate got up and said he hoped the meeting would take some action in reference to the Grand Jury. He did not think that the members of that sugust body would deal fairly by the people, as many of them were adherents of Tammany Hall, He was listened to, but no action was taken in the premises.

The Chairman then addressed the meeting at conaiderable length in praise of the State Committee for recognizing them the regular republican organization of the county; counselling harmony and unremitting efforts in the coming canvass. He was warmly applauded at the close of his remarks.

It was then resolved that five gentlemen be appointed a committee by the Chair, to take proper measures to have inspectors and canvassers of election appointed by Mayor Hall to represent the minority; and that said committee conier with the Committee of Seventy for the purpose of obtaining suitable persons to so as canvassers and inspectors. The resolution was adopted, and the following named gentlemen were named as the committee:—John D. Lawson, Peter Starr, Eenjamin K. Pheips, Louis Norman, General John D. McGregor.

A resolution was also adopted to hold a ratification meeting, and a committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements.

The following resolutions, adopted by the Executive Committee, were then read by Colonel Duganne and carried amid considerable appliance:—

Resolved, That we receive the action of the Syracuse Convention as an assurance that republican sentiment throughen the State is kitogred with that in the city of New York, as opposed to Tamasay democracy, wherever or however manifested.

Resolved, That we resolve the settingle-minded and patrio-nght and to know no respect from chart and the termine of our creatury, the corrupters of our baild box, the enemies of our common schools and the demoralizers of political and declared as a party forever.

Resolved, That in the ticket presented for our support we recognize the names of candidates whom we can honestly endorse as republicans and respect as tellow citizens—men above represent, whose record is clear as daylight, and who will, as olicials in the respective sations to which we shall elevate them, he as pure, honest and patriotic as democratic ordicals is this city have shown themselves the reverse; and we hereby piedge ourselves to labor with a single will and purpose for their election.

The meeting then adjourned quietly. There was

Charges Against Collector Murphy Deuled by the President.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4, 1271.
The Chicago Journal says:—'President Grant, in conversation with friends while in this-city, stated emphatically that, to his knowledge, the charges of the New York Tribune against Collector Murphy are moving him, when from personal knowledge he re-garded him as fit for the place, and will not gratify the clamors of those who have a personal or fac-tious object in view."

POLITICAL NOTES.

Association of Democratic Editors.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 4, 1871.

Another meeting of the Association of Democratic Editors and Publishers of the State of New York was held this morning. A constitution and bylaws were adopted, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—President, D. J. Halstead, of the Syracuse Courier; Vice Presidents, Halstead, of the Syracuse Courier; Vice Presidents, S. H. Parker, of the Geneva Gazette, and C. B. Freeman, of the Molacuk Valley Democrat, of Fonda, N. Y.; Secretary, G. G. Ceoper, of the Rockester Union; Treasurer, A. H. Hatt, of the Reunion, of Watertown; Executive Committee, Benjamin Wood, of the New York News; H. A. Beebe, of the Oswego Gazette; P. B. Beets, of the Rome Sentinei; H. Stowell; of the Seneca Palls Receive, and C. C. Clark, of the Troy Press.

The regular meeting of the association will be held annually and at the place and day immediately preceding the Democrane State Convention.

Arrests for Assnults on Election Can-PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4, 1871.

Warranis were issued this morning for the arrest of several parties concerned in the assaults on elec-tion canvassers at the meeting on Monday evening and carrying off the poil books. Several police officers are implicated in the outrage. In one case a police officer forced a canvasser to give up his books, pointing a revolver at his head.

Republican Numinations in Saratoga County. SARATOGA, N. Y., Oct. 4, 1871. The Fourth Indicial District Republican Convention met to day, and on the first ballot nominated Mr. Joseph Potter, of Washington county, for Juage of the Supreme Court. Judge Potter received eight votes and Judge E. B. Rosekrans ax votes. The nomination was then made unanimous.

Texas Election.

The election is progressing quietiy. There were probably 1,200 votes cast here yesterday and to-day, the people generally voting. Nothing definite will be known until the election closes to-morrow.

Connecticut Election. HARTFORD, Oct. 4, 1871. Returns from 131 towns show that the republicans have carried 77 and the democrats 40; in 20 mixed lickets were elected. The republicans gain 12 towns and the democrats 1.
